A PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.

Mr. W. E. Garry Proves Himself Quite an Entertainer.

The audience in attendance at Elks' Hall last night, in point of numbers, was not as large as the quality of the entertainment merited, so those who failed to attend can judge what they missed. The program rendered was as follows: Prof. A. F. Koerner and Mr. James W. Casey being the accompanists:

- Overture.....Prof. A. F. Koerner
1. Vulcan Song.....Gounod
2. Mr. Fred. Chisnell, Just Himself.
3. Illustrated Songs.....W. E. Garry and S. P. Walters.
4. Tenor Solo.....Mr. W. E. Lufley
5. Up-to-Date.....W. E. Garry
6. Baritone Solo.....Dr. J. Percy Moxon
7. Reading—Selected Miss Cora Eames
8. Tenor Solo—"Non Ever".....Mattie
9. Illustrated Songs.....W. E. Garry and S. P. Walters.

Every participant met with a kind reception, and each number of the bill was encored liberally. The feature of the evening's entertainment, however, were the illustrated songs by Mr. W. E. Garry, assisted by his son Walter. Mr. Garry is a very clever entertainer, indeed, and his work last night demonstrated the fact that the stage is his natural element, he being fluent in speech, graceful in motion, possessing a good voice and fully understanding the art of using it to the best advantage.

THREE ANIMALS CREMATED.

Fire in the stable at the rear of 1110 Washington street at 1:45 o'clock this morning caused an alarm to be rung in, to which the Independent Fire Company quickly responded. The house in front was occupied by Mr. Lattimer. The stable contained a fine horse and two cows, all of which were cremated. The chief, on arrival at the scene, rung in a second alarm, which the Chambers Fire Company promptly responded, but found on their arrival that the Independents, who had two lines of hose engaged in the fight, had the fire under control and consequently did not take part in the fray. The stable was entirely destroyed, but while the rear of several dwellings near were otherwise damaged by the fire, it is thought the loss was caused by a spark from a pipe, as smoking was permitted about the premises.

MRS. ESTHER SEEDS DEAD.

Yesterday morning at 3:40 o'clock, at her home, 422 Randolph street, Mrs. Esther S. Seeds, beloved wife of Mr. E. J. Seeds, departed this life in the 63d year of her age.

The deceased lady was a consistent member of Wright Memorial Church, and by her example has led many in the straight and narrow path, which leads to righteousness. She lived an exemplary life, and deserves all the encomiums that can be heaped upon her.

Devoted as a wife, affectionate as a mother, dutiful as a daughter, loyal as a friend, she was in truth a splendid type of true American womanhood. She leaves two children, Mr. Orson Seeds and Mrs. Conklin, of Norfolk City.

The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in Wright Memorial M. E. Church, and the interment will be in Elmwood Cemetery, Norfolk.

RUN OUT OF THE HOUSE.

Yesterday morning just after 12 o'clock Officer Cadmus while patrolling his beat, saw the blind in the basement of house No. 702 County street wide open, also the door. He stepped up to investigate the cause and saw a man run out of the back way. He started in pursuit of him and was joined in the chase by Officer Arthur Culpepper, but they failed to catch their man, he having considerable start on them.

Reinforcements for Philippines.

Washington, D. C., May 30.—Secretary Alger to-night cabled General Otis to advise him at once what further reinforcements he may need after the arrival of all the regular troops to be dispatched to the Philippines to replace the volunteers, whose time is out. His cablegram calls for a report without delay.

MEMORIAL DAY CELEBRATIONS

day. The American and many foreign flags were displayed at half mast. The graves of the soldiers and sailors at Cavite and Hilo were also decorated to-day.

AT GETTYSBURG.

Gettysburg, Pa., May 30.—Memorial Day was observed at the National Cemetery here to-day with the usual elaborate ceremonies and the graves of the fallen heroes were decorated by school children, assisted by the veterans of the civil war. The principal speaker was the Hon. D. D. Woodmansee, of Cincinnati.

Touching upon the evidences of a reunited country, he said the union is now "indivisible and inseparable, cemented by the blood and sacrifices of our fallen dead. We are a reunited country, ready to battle together for our country's flag."

AT PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, May 30.—Memorial Day was more elaborately observed in this city than for a number of years. Government and municipal offices were closed, as were the schools and business was generally suspended. Prominent local orators delivered addresses during the ceremonies by the G. A. R. at the various cemeteries. The trend of all the speeches was that the war with Spain had cemented the North and South in a bond of fraternal sympathy never again to be broken.

Over the grave of Betsy Ross, in whose house the first American flag was made, there were appropriate services, followed by the raising of a large flag by her great granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Sydney Garrett. An address was made by John Quincy Adams, of New York.

AT HAVANA.

Havana, May 30.—11 a. m.—Decorations Day was observed here to-day in a notable manner. At 9 o'clock this morning Estes G. Rathbone and a committee of women, who had been selected for the purpose, were taken in Read Admiral Crowell's launch, escorted by a detachment of marines to the wreck of the battleship Maine, where they strung the skeleton of the unfortunate craft with ropes of laurel and wreaths of flowers.

Mrs. Lucien Young represented the navy at the decoration of the graves of the sailors and soldiers interred in the Colon cemetery at 11 o'clock. Mrs. Patterson and a committee representing the Maine Association, participated in the ceremonies. A great many flowers and wreaths were placed on the graves of the heroes.

Similar exercises will take place at the Quamedos cemetery at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

FITZ LEE'S ORATION.

Havana, May 30.—Major-General Lee, who delivered the oration, alluded to the ceremonies that were being conducted in the United States over the graves of Union and Confederate troops alike, and remarked that now, here on foreign soil, the sons of the North and the South were honored together. Whenever the American flag is raised, he said, the principles of liberty and the highest ideal of government are upheld, and wherever the Stars and Stripes are waved there a nobler civilization is attained.

GENERAL GRANT'S TOMB.

New York, May 30.—The sarcophagus of General Grant in the tomb at Claremont was covered with flowers this afternoon after impressive ceremonies by U. S. Grant Post, G. A. R., of Brooklyn, an address by Governor Roosevelt and a Presidential salute of twenty-one guns, fired from the United States cruiser Brooklyn, which lay in the Hudson just below the hill, with all her battle flags flying.

AT WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 30.—The national capital devoted itself to the observance of Decoration Day. The departments were closed, public and private business was suspended, the streets were filled with marching veterans, national guardsmen, military and civic organizations, all moving toward the Arlington National Cemetery, Soldiers' Home, Congressional and other cemeteries, appropriate services were held and the graves of the silent army of dead were strewn with flowers. There was added significance to the ceremonies of to-day, for the memories of the civil war were added those of the Spanish-American conflict, which had swelled the list of soldier and sailor dead.

The ceremony at Arlington was notable by the presence of the President and members of his cabinet, and of many leading officers of the army and navy, as well as officials prominent in public life.

KENTUCKY AND INDIANA.

Louisville, Ky., May 30.—Although the day was gloomy and dismal with rain threatened, the graves of the Union soldiers who sleep in the cemeteries of Louisville and New Albany, Ind., were lovingly decked with flowers to-day. At the graves there was beautiful musical services, followed by the oration of the day by the Hon. Henry Watterson.

PAYING CUBAN TROOPS.

PROOF THAT MUSTER ROLLS ARE PADDED ACCUMULATING.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Havana, May 30.—Early this morning Lieutenant Colonel George M. Randall, of the Eighth United States Infantry, accompanied by Paymaster Moses, his clerks, a doctor and a military escort, with nearly $200,000, left by special train for Santiago de Las Vegas, but, owing to various delays, the payment did not begin until this afternoon.

That the rolls are padded badly becomes more and more evident each day, and Colonel Randall says from what he can learn every man, dead or alive, who ever has served in the ranks of the insurgents, appears on the lists.

The number paid this afternoon was forty-five, but there were several applicants with arms entitled to payment who will receive it after identification.

Fifty People Injured in Collision.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Chicago, May 30.—Forty people were injured this afternoon in a rear-end collision between a Harlem race track special and a 48th street train on the Lake street elevated road. It is not believed that any of the injured will die, the most serious injuries so far reported being broken limbs. The motorman on the Harlem special lost control of his train as he was nearing the Oakley avenue station, and the motor car, with its two trailers, crashed into the rear of the 48th street train, which had stopped at the station platform.

Several of the cars were badly splintered, but none of them was thrown from the elevated structure.

Saved From Lynching.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Americus, Ga., May 30.—Judge Littlejohn granted an order this afternoon convening Dooley County Superior Court in special session next Monday to try John Hannaway, a white man, for attempting assault upon a school girl near Vienna yesterday.

The order was granted at the urgent request of prominent citizens of Dooley county, who came here to-day, and by their efforts saved Hannaway from lynching at the hands of outraged citizens of Dooley county.

Storm in the Valley.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Richmond, Va., May 30.—Reports are coming in to-night of severe storms last night in Piedmont Virginia and the Valley. At Basic City several houses were unroofed and a warehouse was demolished near Woodstock. In Shenandoah county great damage was done to telegraph lines and a farmer was killed by lightning. In Augusta county the electrical disturbance put the county telephone system out of service for several hours.

Protection Against High Water.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Savannah, Ga., May 30.—The rice planters owning plantations on the South Carolina side of the Savannah river will meet here to-morrow to form a syndicate of $1,000,000, including a $400,000 bonded indebtedness. It is the purpose of the syndicate to construct a great levee of twenty miles or more along the river for the protection of crops from storms and freshets. This means a great increase in rice production. A Boston syndicate is ready to finance the scheme, taking bonds secured by mortgages on the plantations.

WEST NORFOLK.

The board of stewards of the West Norfolk M. E. Church, South, granted Rev. J. D. Langley two weeks vacation, and he left this week for Louisville, Ky., where he will meet some of his friends and revive association of days gone by. In his absence Rev. J. W. Crider will fill his pulpit next Sunday, both morning and night.

Quite a number of long faces have been seen this week since the late fire, but the president of the Tighman Lumber Company was over to-day and dispelled their sadness by giving his employees to understand that work on a temporary building would begin this week, and he wanted the mill to be turning out work again in ten days.

I wish to remind the readers of the Virginian-Pilot of the fact that it is dangerous for boys to be walking around after night, and as the readers have six days to prepare for the little fellows, they should not compel them to go after night to make their collection. I hope our readers will consider wisely and act accordingly.

BERKLEY.

Yesterday was appropriately observed in Berkley Confederate Memorial Day. A large majority of the business houses in town closed at noon, and numerous residences along the line of march were becomingly decorated in bunting, while "Old Glory" and the flag of the Confederacy floated from various porches. From the early morning hours the ladies of the town could be seen wending their way toward the silent city of the dead, heavily laden with flowers to be deposited upon the grave of some departed but remembered loved one.

Despite the scarcity of flowers, there were few graves in the cemetery that were not decorated, and one had but to glance around to observe that fair and impartial hands had strewn roses upon the graves of the blue and the gray alike. The procession, consisting of the Norfolk Naval Reserves, Grimes' Battery, of Portsmouth; representatives from Pickett-Buchanan Camp, Confederate Veterans, Norfolk; Tidewater Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., and Niemyer-Shaw Camp, and Sons of Veterans, headed by the Naval Reserve Band, and in command of Mr. E. L. Cox, at about 4:30 p. m., moved along the following route to the cemetery: Up Liberty to Clifton street, to Maple avenue, thence to Main street, Main to Berkley avenue, Berkley avenue to Seventh street, thence to the cemetery.

The services there were presided over by Mr. J. A. Morgan, commander Niemyer-Shaw Camp, and were as follows: Opened by prayer, delivered by Rev. T. Clagett Skinner of Berkley Avenue Baptist Church. Rev. Robert Gatewood, of Norfolk, was then introduced as the orator of the day. Mr. Gatewood spoke briefly and met with frequent and unstinted applause, praised in glowing terms the ladies of the South who had contributed so much toward keeping alive the memory of those who fought and died for liberty and right. He referred to the seven days' fight around Richmond, to Davis imprisoned at Appomattox, in language which carried the veterans back to other days, and caused them in fancy to endure camp life and fight again the battles that are over.

He said that the day was not far distant when all men, both North and South, East and West, would be as proud of Robert E. Lee and the valiant Southern soldiers who followed him, as England now was of Oliver Cromwell and his followers. He closed by impressing upon the audience the fact that life is a continual warfare, and urging them to higher lives of morality and religion. At the conclusion of his remarks a recess of 15 minutes was given, after which the procession was again formed and marched as follows: Along Berkley avenue to Chestnut street, Chestnut to Washington, to Mulberry, to Middleton, to Lee, to Pearl, to Chestnut, to the ferry bridge, where the line was disbanded.

OBSEQUIES OF MR. BILISOLY.

The obsequies of Mr. Virgilus B. Bilisoly were held from the residence, on Berkley avenue, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock and were largely attended. Berkley Lodge of Elks, of which the deceased was a highly esteemed member, was present in a body. Rev. Father Thomas J. Brady, of Portsmouth, conducted the services, after which his remains were taken to Oak Grove Cemetery, Portsmouth, and interred in the family plot. The floral contributions were numerous and appropriate. The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. E. A. Graves, J. Paul Cross, Charles Rudd, W. Watson, W. L. Berkley, Frank Smith, Henry Pyle and D. W. Lindsay.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Rea, of Edenton, N. C., are visiting the family of Mr. George Williamson, on Seventh street.

Mrs. J. Fountain Ford, of Richmond, is on a month's visit to her sister, Mrs. J. H. Armbricht, on Liberty street extended.

A number of young ladies and gentlemen gave a pleasant hay ride to Grant Bridge Monday evening. The party was composed of Mrs. McGhee, a colored man on N. 8 mile-driver, at work at the Norfolk and Southern's new dock, yesterday afternoon was caught under a pile and his left hip broken. He was taken across the river to one of the Norfolk hospitals for treatment.

Mrs. Pagett, an aged lady who resides with the family of Mr. R. W. Roane, of Hontiant, fell down a stairway Monday morning and fractured her right thigh. Dr. Norfleet rendered surgical aid. She was suffering considerable pain yesterday.

See want advertisement in this issue for two men to act as dog catchers.
